

“The Value of Historic Preservation”

Sponsored by Paul Bunyan Board of REALTORS®

Our presenter is Nan Taylor, Field Representative
Michigan Historic Preservation Network and the National Trust for Historic Preservation

9:00 a.m., Thursday, March 18th
Wexford/Missaukee Career Tech Center
Lake Superior Room
On 13th Street in Cadillac
(across from Baker College)

Join us for this unique educational opportunity to learn about:

- Historic preservation economic incentives, including federal and state rehabilitation tax credit programs and preservation easements
- how property owners qualify for these incentives
- how historic preservation can play an instrumental role in contributing to the economic strength of a community through historic designations and the rehabilitation of existing buildings
- how these incentives apply to Cadillac's local historic district and other regional National Register sites
